

MANY PEOPLE WANT THE POSTAL BANKS

THEY GENERALLY FAVOR THE PLAN

Prominent Men Present Their Views on the Subject—Postmaster-General Gary Expects Some Legislation by Congress on the Subject—Would Like To See the Matter Discussed

Washington, Nov. 23.—Postmaster-General Gary is receiving many letters regarding the postal savings bank proposition strongly urged by him in his annual report. Many people throughout the country have written him commenting on this projected extension of the postal service and have submitted some suggestions calculated, in their opinion, to make the plan more feasible.

As a whole the correspondence indicates a rather general commendation. Some well-known economists and financiers numbered among the postmaster-general's friends, who have heretofore opposed measures of this character, have in letters just received given a qualified indorsement. Postmaster-General Gary expects some legislation by congress on this subject possibly at the next session, and believes that the extended discussion which has been given it throughout the country will render material assistance to this end.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL GARY.

In the course of an interview Mr. Gary made an answer to some of the comments that have been offered on the subject. He said:

"As far as I have been able to discover, only two objections have been seriously urged against a postal savings system. The first, which never fails to turn up, is the old contention that the government ought not to 'go into the business' of collecting and taking care of the savings of the people. I think this is an objection which may properly be left to congress to answer. The other objection is based upon the generally admitted difficulty of finding safe and proper methods of putting the money accumulations to profitable use.

"It is agreed on all sides that, if practicable, a postal savings system would be most desirable. This means a great deal toward the success of the project. It is being demonstrated daily that the people want it, and it has been my experience that what the people want very much is usually pretty near right and is also very likely to be realized sooner or later.

"I have received a good many letters since the publication of my report from private individuals, from bankers, merchants, manufacturers, professional men and others. I value these personal communications very highly, and hope to get many more. The proposition needs discussion and I am confident that it will bear discussion. I trust that the newspapers—which, by the way, treated my postal savings recommendations handsomely, giving it full and extensive circulation—will keep up their criticisms, and that the people will take it up, think about it, write about it, and not forget to send me the results of their thinking. If we all put our heads together the right plan can be devised, and that is what the country wants."

CHINA ASKS FOR HELP.

Wants Russia to Oust Germany from the Empire.

Washington, Nov. 23.—China has appealed to Russia to oust Germany from her territory. According to information which has reached Washington this is the development of the occupation by a German force of a portion of the Shantung peninsula. It is hoped by Chinese here that the influence exerted by Russia which prevented the rehabilitation of the Turkish navy, will be exercised upon Germany with equal success in the matter of her withdrawal from the territory of their government.

Denial as to Arbitration.

Washington, Nov. 23.—It is stated from an authoritative source that no recent negotiations have occurred between Secretary Sherman and Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador, concerning a new arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain; that no exchange of notes has occurred between Mr. Sherman and Lord Salisbury on this subject, and that Sir Julian has not spoken of the matter since he returned to Washington some weeks ago from London.

Chicago Man Chosen.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 23.—The directors of the Congressional Educational Society have elected the Rev. Theodore Clifton of Chicago as the Western field secretary of the society.

PROPER REVIVAL METHODS.

Dr. Hayes of Evanston Deplores Emotional Excess.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 23.—Dr. D. A. Hayes of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., read a paper on "The Revival—Its Powers and Perils," before the Methodist Episcopal church congress Monday. He said:

"The right kind of revivals have power. The revival, however, has its dangers. The first of these is emotionalism. People are swept to the altar by the rush of the conversion of thousands. When the excitement has subsided they return to their former mode of life. In every revival the scholars and the thinkers should be present as the only safeguard against an excess of emotionalism. The second danger in revivals is a professionalism in the methods employed. Too many evangelists conduct their revivals in the manner of some lifeless machine. Too many church members are made in that way. Too many have religion only during the time of revival. In the right kind of a Methodist church conversions will be made in every month of the year. Every service and sermon should be expected to yield its results. Continued evangelism is the goal which is desired, and then an occasional revival will form a fitting climax."

Another Western speaker was the Rev. John Bingham of De Pauw University, who delivered an exhaustive lecture on "Experimental Psychology."

Interpretation Placed Upon Count Goluchowski's Utterances.

London, Nov. 23.—Count Goluchowski's appeal to Europe is interpreted into a battle cry of a commercial war of pan-Europe versus pan-America. Great Britain clearly was not included in Europe in Count Goluchowski's mind, nor can he have had the Dingley tariff chiefly in mind, for it hardly affects Austria. More probably this is the latest phase of the rapprochement between Austria and Russia. The Vienna correspondent of the Standard asserts that Count Goluchowski referred to the competition with imported corn and beef with which, after their completion of the Siberian railroad, Russia means to supply Europe, supplanting America, Argentina and Indian competition.

Greece Now Facing a Crisis.

Athens, Nov. 23.—In the boule Monday the government was defeated on the question of appointing a committee to inquire into certain incidents of the Turko-Grecian war. It is believed the cabinet will recommend dissolution of the chamber only as a last resource, but the various political leaders who have been interviewed on the subject maintain that the present chamber is powerless to deal with the situation. The decision of King George is awaited with anxiety.

Big Piano Trust Forming.

New York, Nov. 23.—Another great trust is being formed. It is to be composed of the principal piano manufacturers of the country and to include by absorption all of the 200 concerns making instruments. The capitalization has been placed at $50,000,000. It is said that matters have proceeded so far that two or more leading bankers in this country and Europe have given the scheme favorable consideration.

Wages Increased 20 Per Cent.

Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 23.—Notices were posted Monday by the Carbon Limestone Company, the Bessemer Limestone Company, John R. Grist and other limestone operators in the Mahoning Valley that on Dec. 1 wages of all employees would be increased 20 per cent. The advance will affect 3,000 men and is due to the great demand for limestone by all the blast furnaces being in operation.

Wages Are Increased.

Iron Mountain, Mich., Nov. 23.—The Chapin Mining Company, the Pewabic Company, the Antoine Ore Company, the Aragon Ore Company, and the Pennsylvania Iron Mining Company have announced a 10 per cent increase in wages, to take effect January 1. The increase affects more than 2,000 men. There is a shortage of men at all the mines. The mines will be worked steadily throughout the winter.

Expect a Visit from McKinley.

Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 23.—President McKinley will probably be in Rock Island during the National Union Veterans' union encampment next August. Commander in Chief Street has written to Rock Island to that effect. It is proposed to include Rock Island in the President's trip to the Trans-Mississippi exposition at Omaha.

Reward for Assassin.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 23.—Governor Jones has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the assassin or assassins of Colonel John M. Clayton, which occurred at Plummerville, Conway county, while he was securing evidence in his congressional contest with Clifton R. Breckinridge several years ago.

Indiana's New Chief Justice.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—The Supreme court was reorganized Monday by the election of Judge Timothy E. Howard of South Bend to be chief justice in place of Judge James McCabe.

Spain Buys Two Cruisers.

Rome, Nov. 23.—Spain has ordered two cruisers from firms in Ansaldo. The vessels must be delivered within ten months.

SAY A SETTLEMENT IS NOW IN SIGHT

STRIKE OF ILLINOIS COAL MINERS TO BE ENDED

Spirit of Conciliation—The Proceedings of the Joint Convention at Joliet Are Harmonious—Miners Are in a Hopeful Mood—Screen Likely To Be Abolished

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 23.—A harmonious meeting of coal operators and miners was held in the courthouse here Monday. The convention adjourned until today without definite action, but it is the feeling that the operators and men are closer together than they have been since the strike began July 4. There will not be a final adjournment until some plan for a settlement has been decided upon which the miners' delegates may refer to their constituents for ratification. Every mine in the northern field was represented.

W. H. Holcomb of the Wilmington Star Coal company presided and State Secretary W. D. Ryan of the miners' organization acted as secretary. A committee on credentials, composed of three representatives from each side, was appointed, and it reported in favor of granting one vote to each mine for the operators as well as for the men. In cases where a mine had more than one representative the vote be divided so that it would not aggregate more than one, and in cases where a delegate represented more than one mine he was to have a vote for each.

Prior to the joint convention the miners held a secret conference, at which the following scale was decided upon as a proposition to be submitted to the operators for a settlement of the strike: Wilmington field, gross weight, 67 cents a ton; Spring Hill, gross weight, 67 cents a ton; LaSalle field, gross weight, 62 cents a ton; Streator field, gross weight, 44 cents a ton.

The operators also held a secret conference, but they declined to say what, if any, action they had decided upon. It will be noticed in the proposition from the miners that no mention is made of a price for mining over screens.

It is the general feeling of the miners of the northern field that the doom of the screen is at hand and the sentiment was expressed more than once that price was a secondary consideration to the abolition of the screen. The miner wants pay for all the coal he digs. He has stood out and suffered since July for this principle, and he is prepared, if necessary, to stand out more months in its defense.

The miners have been given assurance by the majority of the operators that they would change to the gross-weight system just as soon as the necessary changes could be made in the mines. Mr. Dalzell, who is the magnate at Spring Valley, said he would make the change at any time the competitive field was brought into line, and this information was especially pleasing to his men, who have said all along that they would never return to work under any other system than gross weight.

Cost M. A. Hanna $15,000.

Columbus, O., Nov. 23.—Senator M. A. Hanna contributed $15,000 to the state committee to aid his re-election, according to the itemized statement filed with the secretary of state by Treasurer W. F. Burdell, as required by the Garfield corrupt practices act. The statement shows besides that the committee borrowed $20,000 and collected from other sources $20,914.40, showing total receipts of $55,914.40, of which $54,879.51 was expended. Of this sum $13,455 went to county chairmen.

Find Skeletons at Dubuque, Iowa.

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 23.—The uncovering of a human skull in the cottage owned by Patrick Grew has been followed by the disinterment of a number of skeletons. How they came there is a mystery. The premises many years ago were occupied by lawless persons, and there is a belief that the remains are those of victims of foul play. Others incline to the supposition that it was at one time a private graveyard.

Pardoned by President McKinley.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Frederick W. Griffin, who as assistant cashier embezzled $50,000 from the Northwestern national bank and who was sentenced to five years in the Joliet penitentiary, was pardoned yesterday by President McKinley. Griffin confessed to the crime April 4, 1895, a few weeks later was sentenced in the United States court, and has served a little more than two years of his term.

Strikers Return to Work.

Houghton, Mich., Nov. 23.—Two hundred miners and trammers who were on a strike at the Atlantic mines, with as many more who were involuntarily idle, have returned to work. The trammers will probably be accorded an advance of $5 per month. It was found that much of the bad feeling existing was due to mutual misapprehension.

Funk's Fight for Speaker in Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 23.—J. H. Funk of Hardin is a candidate for speaker of the house. He claims to have pledges of support from forty-two members of the house in his candidacy for the place. It takes fifty-one to elect. The house organizes Jan. 19.

FIRE AT STREATOR WITH HEAVY LOSS

EXPLODING LAMP WAS THE CAUSE.

Loss Will Reach a Quarter of a Million Dollars—D. Herman & Co's Large Retail Store Is Destroyed, Including the Immense Stock of Goods Postoffice Burned Out

Streator, Ill., Nov. 23.—The most disastrous fire that has visited Streator since 1874, when nearly the whole business section of the city was destroyed, occurred Monday night. About 6:30 o'clock a lamp exploded in the millinery department in the second story of the store of D. Heenan & Co., the largest retail firm in central Illinois, and the mammoth store, comprising a building 75 by 200 feet in size, three stories high and a basement, all filled with merchandise, was destroyed. The firemen, owing to a lack of ladders, were not able to reach the blaze in time to do effective work, and in a few minutes it was seen the place was doomed to destruction. The firemen then turned their attention to the adjoining buildings.

A strong wind blew the flames across the street, and when it was thought the buildings would surely take fire and the entire business district be wiped out the Ottawa fire department was telegraphed for, and arrived at 8 o'clock. At that time the fire was under control.

The total loss to the firm of D. Heenan & Co. is placed at $225,000, as follows: Building, $75,000; fixtures and stock, $150,000. The insurance is estimated at $125,000.

A number of other establishments suffered losses varying from $500 to $3,000. Among these are: H. F. Howland, furniture dealer, $3,000; M. Purcell & Co., dry goods, $2,500; Julius Moses, clothier, $2,000; Abe Levi, boots and shoes, $1,000; D. R. Taylor, dentist, $3,000; Barney Keating, $2,500.

The postoffice building was completely destroyed, but the carriers and employees secured all the mail and valuables, only the letter boxes and big safe being left in the building. The loss on the fixtures will be about $2,000.

While the streets were crowded with people watching the fire a barrel of kerosene in the basement of the Heenan building exploded and caused a momentary panic, as it was reported that several kegs of blasting powder were stored in the basement. This had been removed, however, when the first alarm of fire was given.

The firm of D. Heenan & Co. is one of the oldest in LaSalle county and has been in business here for over twenty-five years. The firm was known all over central Illinois. It employed 120 clerks. D. Heenan, head of the firm, was a penitentiary commissioner under Governor Altgeld. The resident members of the firm could not say definitely whether they would rebuild or not.

FATAL FIRE AT BALTIMORE.

One Woman Dies in the Burning of Scott's Furniture Store.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 23.—The five-story building, 317 and 319 North Howard street, owned by M. F. McCormick and occupied by William H. Scott's furniture store, was destroyed by fire Monday, and one woman, Mrs. Susan E. Maxon of 1536 Williams street, lost her life. The total damage to the building and contents is estimated at about $135,000; insurance, $100,000. The two adjoining buildings, occupied respectively by the Uria Pollack Furniture company, on the south side, and by Potthast Bros., dealers in antique furniture, on the north side, were considerably injured.

To Study Conditions in Mexico.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23.—Ex-Gov. Crittenden, former consul general to Mexico, expects to leave this city next week for San Antonio, Tex., where he will be joined the latter part of the week by William J. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan. The three will leave San Antonio about December for a four weeks' trip through Mexico. Mr. Bryan will make a careful study of the financial system which now prevails there.

Farmers' Homes Threatened.

Quincy, Ill., Nov. 23.—A fire that threatened to wipe out every house in the Lima lake district started at the southern end of the district in the tall, dry grass Saturday afternoon, and raged until Monday morning, when it was finally extinguished by the farmers, who worked all night. The flames worked north into Hancock county, where several houses and barns were destroyed.

May Upset the Government.

London, Nov. 23.—The Standard warns the Spanish government that a personage capable of exacting homage from such diverse elements as the Carlists, advanced republicans, conservatives and workers' associations as did Gen. Weyler at Corunna is capable of developing into a popular hero who may upset the government and even the dynasty unless care is taken.

Competitor Crew in New York.

New York, Nov. 23.—The steamer Saratoga, from Havana, having on board the released members of the Competitor filibustering expedition, reached harbor Monday. The men were in fairly good health and excellent spirits on reaching quarantine.

BLANCO SUES FOR PEACE.

His Representative Goes to Negotiate with the Cubans.

Havana, Nov. 23.—General Pando started by train from this city Saturday in order, according to the official announcement, to take charge of the campaign against the insurgents. He was accompanied by his full staff and was escorted by a company of artillery. But it is stated on very good authority that General Pando has been commissioned by Marshal Blanco, the captain-general, to enter into communication with the insurgent leaders, with the view to arranging for peace. This statement is based on accurate knowledge of all the facts in the case.

Luetger's Trial Not Fixed.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The second Luetger trial probably will be definitely located or assigned to some docket this afternoon. Mr. Deneen and Mr. Phalen, Luetger's attorney, held earnest conference for more than two hours Monday, but could not reach any conclusion. The hearing of "the people vs. Adolph L. Luetger" had been nominally set for Judge Horton's court at 10 o'clock Monday morning, this being, as Mr. Deneen afterward admitted, merely to force Luetger's attorney to take some speedy action.

President McKinley Explains.

Washington, Nov. 23.—President McKinley holds that his amendment of July 7 to rule 2 of the civil service rules applies to reductions of ratings as well as to removals from the service. This announcement is of interest for the reason that the rule has been differently interpreted by public officials. Some have interpreted the word "removal" to mean removal from the service, while others believe it means a change of rating or the removal from one grade to another in the classified service.

Agree Women Need the Ballot.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 23.—One of the five national conferences of the National Woman's Suffrage Association opened here Monday afternoon with 200 delegates in attendance. Several addresses were given on whether the taxpaying woman, wage-earning woman, professional woman, and the wife and mother need the ballot. It was the unanimous opinion of the speakers that they did.

Emperor William's Threat.

London, Nov. 23.—A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from Christiana, with reference to the political conflict between Norway and Sweden as to the relative rights of the two parts of the composite monarchy, says: "A prominent Swedish politician attributes to Emperor William the following statement: 'If the Norwegians seek to accomplish their ends I will crush Norway as I have already crushed Greece.'"

Soon to Rest with the Jury.

Vinton, Iowa, Nov. 23.—Another day will see the Novak murder trial brought to a close, with the exception of the jury's verdict. Mr. Boies will conclude the last argument to the jury today and before night the court will have instructed the members of the jury and sent them out to deliberate upon a verdict. The story that came from Seattle, Wash., that Edward Murray had been seen there alive had little effect upon the trial.

Loss Was $3,650,000.

Melbourne, Victoria, Nov. 23.—The fire Sunday morning destroyed within three hours an entire block of buildings, bounded by Elizabeth, Flanders and Swanston streets and Flinders lane, with the exception of two buildings on the Swanston street front. The insurance companies lose $3,650,000, of which about $2,500,000 will fall on British companies. Australian companies lose $1,150,000.

Strawboard Works Resume.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 23.—By order of the American Strawboard company the big plants in this city and all others in the country were put into operation again last night. It is understood that they will continue to operate night and day until March or April, when there will be a suspension for a month.

Sibley Would Run.

Mexico, Mo., Nov. 23.—A letter from J. C. Sibley of Pennsylvania to a friend in this city indicates that he would accept the nomination for vice-president on a ticket with W. J. Bryan. He says he thinks the president will recommend the retirement of the greenback in his coming message.

Fever List Shrinks.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 23.—There were six new cases of yellow fever Monday, with one death. Dr. S. R. Oliphant, president of the board of health, has returned from Washington, and is positive that President McKinley will bring about the appointment of a commission to study the fever in Cuba.

Casimir-Perier Will Not Talk.

Paris, Nov. 23.—Ex-President Casimir-Perier declines to confirm or deny the story told Monday by the Paris correspondent of the Daily Chronicle regarding the connection of Emperor William of Germany with the Dreyfus affair.

Carlisle Rising Reported.

Madrid, Nov. 23.—An unconfirmed report has been received here from Saragossa, capital of the province of that name in northeastern Spain, stating that the Carlists have risen in the vicinity of that city.

MAY MOVE "HEAVEN" TO BADGER STATE

SCHWEINFURTH'S FOLLOWERS TO LEAVE ROCKFORD.

Buy a Fine Farm Near Portage, Wisconsin, and Are Likely To Quit Illinois—Fatal Accident at Racine—Judge Mills Is Dead in Manitowoc—State News.

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 23.—John E. Peter W. and Spencer L. Weldon and Mr. and Mrs. Scott, well-known followers of Schweinfurth and residents of his "heaven" south of this city, have closed a deal for the purchase of 1,700 acres of choice land adjoining and partly in the village of Portage, Wis.

The purpose for which the land was purchased, so the Weldons say, is to establish extensive stock farms for the raising of blooded horses and cattle, but there are rumors that Schweinfurth is to remove his Winnebago county heaven, or at least establish a branch there.

Kills One and Injures Two.

Racine, Wis., Nov. 23.—A fatal cave-in occurred on Main street, Monday, one man being killed and two seriously injured. The names of the killed and injured are: Jensen, Lars, aged 49 years, killed; leaves a wife and nine children. Johnson, John, aged 35 years, and married; injured internally and face badly cut. Peterson, William, aged about 45 years, married; injured about chest and shoulder; he will probably recover. The men were working in a sewer when the cave-in occurred.

Judge J. T. Mills Dead.

Manitowoc, Wis., Nov. 23.—A telegram was received here Monday bringing news of the death of Judge J. T. Mills at Denver, Colo. He was there visiting his son, J. Warner Mills, of that city. Judge Mills was prominent in the early history of Wisconsin, being active in the organization of the Republican party.

Bank of Lodi Will Pay.

Lodi, Wis., Nov. 23.—The management of the Bank of Lodi, forced to the wall Oct. 20 by the failure of the Bank of Edgerton, will make its first payment of 25 per cent Monday, Nov. 29. On the same day a new bank will be opened, with a paid-up capital of $25,000.

Austria Needs a Tariff.

London, Nov. 23.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, telegraphing with reference to a semi-official inquiry just opened there into the condition of the Austrian export trade, says: "Unless a marked change occurs in the politico-economical views prevailing here it is likely that the defensive measures against American protectionism, which are regarded as among the most pressing necessities of the immediate future, will themselves be of a protectionist character."

Silver Refiners to Combine.

New York, Nov. 23.—A conference was held in this city Monday between representatives of the largest silver smelting and refining works in the United States, looking toward a consolidation, but not consolidation in the sense of a silver trust. The object is to combine the smelting and refining companies into joint agencies so that the prepared metal may have readier sale.

Votes for Consolidation.

Detroit, Nov. 23.—The Michigan Society of the Sons of the American Revolution ratified the action of the Sons of the Revolution in combining the two orders under the name of the "Society of the American Revolution." A committee of five was appointed to act with a like committee of the Sons of the Revolution to organize the new state society.

Triple Tragedy at a Crossing.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. John Borseman and a young child, who resided at Burkett, this county, were driving across the Nickel Plate railway near Clay Pool Sunday afternoon, when they were run down by a train. Mrs. Borseman and the child were instantly killed, and Borseman was fatally injured.

Murderers of Arroyo to Die.

Mexico City, Nov. 23.—The great trial of Arroyo's murderers is over, terminating with the sentence of death pronounced on ten of the police officials and policemen concerned in the butchery of the hapless wretch whose attempt on the life of the president caused so profound a sensation here.

Passengers Placed in Peril.

Ligonier, Ind., Nov. 23.—The fast passenger train on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad ran into a freight train in this city Monday morning. Both engines were wrecked and all trains were delayed over three hours. No blame is attached to anyone.

Martin Thorn Again on Trial.

New York, Nov. 23.—Owing to the illness of Judge Smith, Judge Maddox is presiding at the second trial of Martin Thorn for the murder of William Guldensuppe. The trial began Monday and before court adjourned until morning seven jurors had been secured.

Buffalo, Nov. 22.—Ex-Congressman

Lorin B. Sessions of Chautauqua county died suddenly at his home in Panama, N. Y.

SOCIAL EVENTS AT MAGNOLIA

Mrs. Brown is Surprised and Presented with Handsome Gifts.

Magnolia, Nov. 22.—Saturday afternoon one of the pleasantest social occasions of the season took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, on Capital Hill, a surprise in honor of Mrs. Brown's sixty-third birthday, and everybody had a good time.

When supper was announced by the committee, Mrs. George Lee, Hannah McCoy, Mrs. Ed. Mattice, the guests seated themselves around the table. Boquets of the choicest flowers adorned the festive board, tastefully arranged by Mrs. Olive Fenn. Many old neighbors were called together to enjoy a social chat; then Mrs. Brown was sent for by her daughter, as she was spending her birthday at Clyde McCoy's. She soon arrived, and her surprise was complete.

In behalf of the friends gathered, Mrs. Mattice presented her with a beautiful center table, and several other gifts.

Mr. McCoy and Mrs. John Getzer were very pleasantly remembered, it being their birthdays also. Many of those invited could not be present and sent regrets. Those present were: J. F. Howard, Almeron Eager, Mrs. Lydia O'Neil of Evansville, Mrs. Victoria Fay of Adell, Ia.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AT AFTON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Antisdell Celebrate—Postmaster Recommended.

Afton, Nov. 23.—Last Monday marked the fifteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Antisdell and Mr. and Mrs. George S. Otis and the event was celebrated by a family gathering at the home of the latter couple, the affair being in the nature of a surprise for the worthy town treasurer. Those present had an enjoyable time. Hon. J. A. Cooper, member of congress from the first Wisconsin district, has recommended the appointment of Ulysses G. Waite as postmaster at this place. Do not forget the Y. P. S. C. E. social to be held at the home of Robert Jackson on Friday evening, Dec. 3. Miss Grace Gundel entertained Miss Emma Hartwick, of Hanover, Sunday. Milton Kilmer, of Neola, Iowa, is visiting with relatives in this vicinity. O. D. Antisdell, of Beloit, attended morning services at the Baptist church Sunday. L. C. O'Brien hustled around in this vicinity last week and gathered up $700 worth of live porkers, which he loaded at the local stock yards Thursday. Frank Blunk was up from Hebron, Ill., for a short visit with Afton relatives last week. The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. W. J. Miller on Thursday last week. Charles H. Hudson has decided to learn telegraphy and is now a student of night operator Matthews at the C. & N. W. depot.

Barkers' Corners News.

Barkers' Corners, Nov. 23.—The Ladies Aid society will hold their annual fair next week on Thursday afternoon and evening at the U. B. church. All are invited to attend. Taylor Brown, who was working for John Flagler fell off from a load of corn stalks and broke his arm. George Griffy is gaining slowly and yet he has no use of his limbs, but sits up most of the time. Miss Ella Guernsey who teaches in the Dutton district is sick and there will be no school this week. Miss Julia Dutton is expected home Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving. A. G. Russell's law suit comes off next Monday and it will then be decided who pays for a broken bicycle.

Lima Center News.

Lima Center, Nov. 23.—Mr. Bars of Janesville was a caller at Mr. Chapman's Sunday. The party given for Miss Grace Roe last Friday evening was well attended. All present report a good time. Mrs. Glennan is visiting Mrs. McLean of North Lima this week. Miss Della Bowers left last night for Madison where she will spend Thanksgiving with her sister. Mrs. William Truman is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Reed at Janesville. Mr. Holbrook has been repairing his barn. Mrs. Cowles left for Milwaukee this morning where she will make a short visit.

COLDEST NIGHT THIS SEASON

Janesville People Got a Touch of Winter Last Night

Winter struck Rock county in earnest last evening. A brisk wind during the early part of the evening drove a cold blast through the streets that plainly told of the coldest night of the season. At 1 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered eight degrees above, while at 7 o'clock it registered twelve degrees above. Clothing and shoe merchants are praying that the coldest of weather will prevail from now on.

A little child of J. R. Hays, living near Colquitt, Ga., overturned a pot of boiling water, scalding itself so severely that the skin came off its breast and limbs. The distressed parents sent to Mr. Bush, a merchant of Colquitt for a remedy, and he promptly forwarded Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The child was suffering intensely but was relieved by a single application of the Pain Balm. Another application or two made it sound and well. For sale by C. D. Stevens, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

MONEY TO BE MADE BY PROMPTNESS

FOWLER'S LETTER TO JANESVILLE BUSINESS MEN.

Advertising Expert Talks of the Trade—Bringing Value of "On Time"—What You Want When You Want It Pronounced a Good Motto.

(Copyright, 1897, by Nathl. C. Fowler, Jr.)

"On-time," is the cry of progress. "Occ-late" is the groan of failure. The railroads that run, run on time.

The clerks who succeed, arrive on time. The merchant of success, is on time.

If there is one thing breeding irritation it is waiting and waiting for the always-behind man.

Promptness is expected. Promptness is demanded. Promptness is a business commodity.

What you want when you want it, not what you want when the seller wants to send it, is the principle of the business paying the interest of profit.

The artist may be behind-hand. The lawyer may be a little late. The world excuses them.

The world will not do business, if it can help it, with the behind-man on one side of the street when there is an on-time man on the other side of the street.

What the people want is what the people will buy, provided they can get it when they want it.

What the people want is not always what they will buy, if it is of uncertain delivery.

The combination of quality and promptness wins because it has a right to win.

Nobody likes to wait. A woman, or a man either, would rather have goods delivered at six o'clock if six o'clock was the promised time, than to have them delivered at five o'clock when four o'clock was the promised time.

The nearer certainty a business man reaches the greater certainty of his success.

Promptness costs no more than "behind time."

When it is once established it is easy to maintain.

"On-time" does not require capital, but it does require judgment and management.

Nobody has a right to fail for being behind hand, for the condition of things admits of no excuse.

The store which delivers on time, keeps its promises, and never makes a statement it cannot carry out, is the store which succeeds.

Occasional accident will happen, but promptness can be almost universal subject only to the disaster of the unexpected.

It is better to promise less than you feel reasonably sure of doing than to promise up to the limit of possibility.

There isn't a better advertising point than that of promptness, if it is backed with action.

GALBRAITH WINS HONORS

Horses He Bought Take Prizes At New York Now.

Alex. Galbraith was pleased with the result of the horse show given at Madison square garden, New York, last week. In 1886 F. O. Stevens of Attica, N. Y., sent Mr. Galbraith to England to buy for him the best Hackney horses that money would secure. In competition with the world, these same horses captured three out of four prizes at the great New York show, in the championship class. One of the horses "Clifton" by name was awarded the $500 challenge cup, having won it twice in succession.

SEE WOLVES NEAR SHOPIERE

Sheep Are Killed and Slumbers Are Disturbed By Howls.

Word comes from Shopiere that wolves have been seen in large numbers in the woods south of Shopiere near the railroad tracks. Farmers residing in that vicinity have lost several sheep and at night the wolves set up a doleful howl. Here is a chance for local sportsmen to combine business and pleasure as the state and county tax is $10 on every scalp.

BURR ILL WITH PARALYSIS

The Janesville Man Very Sick in a Milwaukee Hospital.

With his right side entirely paralyzed, William H. Burr of this city, has been lying dangerously ill in a Milwaukee hospital during the past few days. Saturday his condition was such that Mrs. Burr left to join him. It is hoped that he can soon be removed to this city.

From the Lone Star State comes the following letter, written by W. F. Gass, editor of the Mt. Vernon, (Tex.) Herald. "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for the past year, and find it the best remedy for colic and diarrhoea that I have ever tried. Its effects are instantaneous and I cheerfully recommended it, especially for cramp colic and diarrhoea. Indeed, we shall try and keep a bottle of it on our medicine shelf as long as we keep house. For sale by C. D. Stevens, Pharmacist, Corner Main and Milwaukee Sts.

TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

MODERN Woodmen meet tonight. This is the fourth Tuesday in the month.

DAVID CONGER is home from the north woods, and brought a deer with him.

EPICURE coffee, a new article, very fine, 3 pounds $1.00 can, to introduce it, 90 cents. Sanborn.

RICHFIELD coffee has always sold at 80 cents 3-lb pound can. We reduce it to 75 cents a can. Sanborn.

PROF. J. H. KOWALSKI will meet the Congregational church choir in the church parlors at 8 o'clock tonight.

JANESVILLE City Lodge No. 90, I. O. O. F., meets this evening at Odd Fellows hall on West Milwaukee street.

Mrs. JOHN RUOB lost her case at Rockford. Mrs. Ruob, who now lives at Rockton, sued Mrs. Hannah Gleason for slander.

EDITOR LIBBY of the Evansville Enterprise says: "Remember your local publishers have feelings the same as other people, and after they have published notices of your socials, suppers and entertainments free, and are not invited, it cuts them just as deeply as anyone else. If you don't consider them worthy of your society, don't use them."

THE Ladies' Missionary societies met this afternoon with Mrs. Martha A. Shephard, No. 9 Milwaukee avenue, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Billings and Mrs. Cheney conducted the study of Home Missionary work in Wisconsin. Mrs. Grey and Mrs. Lee on Africa of 1897. Mrs. Abbey and Mrs. Denison gave a report of the W. B. M. I. Board meeting at Evanston.

PLAN TO RAISE MORTGAGE

Rector Barrington Hopes to Pay Parish House Debt By Easter

Arthur H. Barrington, rector of Christ church, proposes a plan to raise the mortgage on the parish house. The amount to be raised (principal and interest) is $2,800. Divide this amount into 2,800 shares at one dollar each. Let each individual state how many shares he or she will take and pay for by Easter. Let each society in the parish take as many shares as it thinks it can pay for.

Who will take the first share? How many will you take? The number of shares taken and by whom taken will be published from month to month in the Angelus. Again, sometimes we would rather pay cash or we would like to pay from month to month or when convenient, rather than wait till Easter. This also can be done. The rector will reestablish the Parish house sinking fund for this purpose and from month to month credit will be given in the Angelus for every share paid for.

TO WORK FOR TEMPERENCE

Four Lines of Campaign Are Laid Out in the Plan.

In accordance with the recommendations, the twenty-second Sunday after Trinity was observed as Temperance Sunday in Christ church, at least the rector spoke upon the subject of church temperance. The Church Temperance society is declared to be a union, on equal terms with those who are temperate, and those who abstain entirely from intoxicating liquors as a beverage. It works on the lines of:

1. Prevention, because it is easier to form the boy, than to reform the man.

2. Counteraction, because the best way to eliminate the saloons is to supplant it.

3. Restrictive legislation, because it is not impossible to restrict, when you cannot prohibit.

4. Personal rescue, because every true Christian should realize that he is his brother's keeper.

"ELECTRICIAN" WELL LIKED

Blaney's Play Pleased Myers' Grand Patrons Last Night.

Charles E. Blaney's new play, "The Electrician," was presented for the first time at the Myers Grand last evening, and pleased the audience. The scenic effects were good, and the company well balanced.

Why

Do people buy Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to any other,—in fact almost to the exclusion of all others?

Because

They know from actual use that Hood's is the best, i. e., it cures when others fail. Hood's Sarsaparilla is still made under the personal supervision of the educated pharmacists who originated it.

The question of best is just as positively decided in favor of Hood's as the question of comparative sales.

Another thing: Every advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla is true, is honest.

MRS. I. L. NICHOLSON DEAD SHURTLIFF IS LIEUTENANT

Wife of the Bishop Was Laid to Rest Today.

Mrs. Adele Ellicott Nicholson, wife of the Rt. Rev. Isaac L. Nicholson of the diocese of Milwaukee who has frequently visited in this city was buried in Milwaukee this morning. Services of a private nature were held from the cathedral. She has been critically ill for some time and her death was momentarily expected for several days. The cause of death was consumption. Mrs. Nicholson had always been of a delicate constitution but only began to fail materially in health during the past two years. She was comparatively a young woman. She was born in Baltimore and was the daughter of a once prominent merchant of that city, Henry William Ellicott, who died in 1895. Her immediate family all reside in the distant south and east, and some in California. On her father's side, the family were the founders of Ellicott City, near Baltimore; and also of Ellicottville, near Buffalo, N. Y., where an extensive family connection yet reside. On the side of her mother, who was a Miss Barney, she was descended directly from Commodore Barney, so distinguished in the war of 1812, and in the defense of Washington. She was one of the greatest authorities on ecclesiastical art embroidery in this country. She was consulted on the subject by the people from all over the country. All the bishop's vestments, which were presented to him by St. Mark's parish in Philadelphia at the time of his consecration, and which are acknowledged to be about the finest of the kind in this country, were worked under her immediate direction. All the priests' handsome altar hangings and priests' vestments at All Saints' cathedral were also designed and executed under her supervision.

THEY REPORT ON THE LEAF

Examiners Conference Decides on What Should Be Done.

Rock county tobacco growers will be interested in the report of the tobacco examiners' conference, which has reached the treasury department, makes three recommendations, as follows: First, that 25 per cent. of all marks of every invoice of imported tobacco should be examined, and that the rule for the present be limited to tobacco imported from the West Indies, Mexico and South America. Second, that the percentage of wrappers found in filler bales be reduced by the count of leaves. Third, that the district from which the tobacco is imported be marked on the invoice wherever practicable. These recommendations will be adopted by the treasury department.

To Give Thanksgiving Dinner.

There are in our city many children who, from anything they see or hear in their homes, do not understand why Thanksgiving differs from any other day. Some never in their homes have a taste of coffee and many other things which we daily enjoy. I purpose upon the coming of this glad day to gather these children into the mission, have for them a service and gladden their little hearts by serving for them a dinner at 2 p. m. Now if the ladies when preparing dinner for themselves and friends will cook or bake a little extra and send it to the Mary Kimball Mission, 106 South Jackson street, it will help me very much in preparing for this joyous occasion and do who said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it unto me" will add His blessing. There is much destitution in our city today and as winter approaches it will increase and this is a fitting time in which to donate clothing, bedding, etc., for the needy.

MARY KIMBALL, City Missionary.

COMMON SENSE CURE.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Permanently by Curing the Cause.

Remarkable Remedy Which Is Bringing Comfort to Thousands of Sufferers.

Probably half the people who see this article suffer from piles. It is one of the commonest diseases and one of the most obstinate. People have it for years and just because it is not immediately fatal they neglect it. Carelessness causes no end of suffering. Carelessness about so simple a thing as piles has often caused death. Hemorrhages occur from no apparent cause and loss of blood causes death. Hemorrhages occur during surgical treatment, often causing death.

Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure.

It allays the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membranes into good, sound healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent.

Here are some voluntary and unsolicited testimonials we have lately received: Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

Mr. M. Griffin, proprietor of the Griffin House, Detroit, Mich., says: I have been a sufferer from piles until three years ago I bought one box of the Pyramid Pile Cure and since then I have had no piles. I have recommended them to many friends and guests at my hotel, every one of whom has been cured.

The above is true as my experience has proved it and I hope it may induce other sufferers to try the Pyramid.

A little book on cause and cure of piles will be mailed free to any address by writing to Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

Druggists sell full sized packages of Pyramid Pile Cure at 50 cents.

Succeeds Len Matthews of the Christ Church Cadets--Notes.

At a meeting of the Christ Church Cadet company council held in the parish house Monday evening, Nov. 8, the resignation of Second Lieutenant Mattaewa was presented and accepted. On motion, Sergeant Shurtleff was nominated and unanimously elected second lieutenant of the company. As several resignations have taken place, largely on account of removals and business engagements, it was voted to give the company a furlough until the beginning of the year. In the meantime it is hoped that the company may be recruited up to its full quota.

It is proposed, if sufficient interest is manifested, to have a second company to be known as the Young Crusaders for boys between the ages of 8 and 13, as supplemental to the Cadets. The Crusaders would meet at a different time, have a regular ritual and pass word, so that none but members could be admitted. The equipment consists of cap and belt, lance with brass tip, insignia of the order, baldric, U. S. flag and guidon. They would be drilled by an officer from the Cadets.

First Sergeant Shurtleff's report for the quarter ending October 1, in the good mark's record, was perfect, and the good marks medal was accordingly won by him. This being the third time in succession that he has won the medal, it became his private property. The rector in a few complimentary words presented the medal to him in behalf of the company council.—The Angelus.

EFFECTS STATUTES LEGALITY

Judge Seaman at Milwaukee Rules on New Wisconsin Assignment Law

According to a decision rendered by Judge Seaman of Milwaukee, in the United States court, the new assignment law passed by the last session of the legislature is unconstitutional, in so far as it applies to obligations or contracts existing at the time of the enactment of the measure.

The decision was rendered in the case of the Heath-Milligan Manufacturing Company against the Union Oil and Paint Company. The Heath Manufacturing Company attached property of the defendant company, which made an assignment within thirty days thereafter. Under the new assignment law the defendant company sought to have the attachment set aside, as the law provides that all attachments levied against the property of a person, firm or corporation within thirty days prior to an assignment by the latter shall be void.

Judge Seaman declared that while this may be good law so far as it applies to liabilities incurred since the enactment of the law, that it cannot be made effective as to obligations existing previous to the passage of the measure. He held the act as inoperative as to the attachment question.

Bond Issue Is Not Likely.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Rumors of an impending bond sale were sent out to several newspapers last night. They are authoritatively denied by men of prominence here. The administration takes a roseate view of the situation and expects a healthier condition of the revenue in the next six months.

Commercial War on America.

Rome, Nov. 23.—The Official Don Chisciotte Opinione and the Courriere della Sera approve the plan of Count Goluchowski for forming a European commercial league against the United States. The Arena declares Germany, Italy, Russia, Switzerland and Sweden have already accepted the project.

THE WISCONSIN SYSTEM.

The efficiency of the Wisconsin system of caring for insane is shown by comment in other states. Minnesota is likely to adopt the Wisconsin system and the St. Paul Globe says:

"In Wisconsin the state hospital is really one. Patients are committed to it and treated by skilled physicians until cured or the hopelessness of cure is established. In the latter case they are assigned to asylums maintained by the counties where they are cared for during life at the public expense, a portion of which is borne by the state. They are there given employment suitable to their condition, affording them that exercise so needful to health.

"There are, aside from many material advantages others that appeal to the humanities. The inmates are within easy distance of their former homes and their relatives. The latter can visit them at any time and do so with mutually satisfactory results. Liable to these daily visitations the attendants are under constant public surveillance and cruelty is impossible. The inmates are more cheerful because of these frequent visits of friends and relations. With us commitment to one of our hospitals is equivalent to death so far as the home ties and associations go. A trip to one of these involves an expense that few can afford and the unavoidable result is the loss of that cheering influence that even the demented get from such visits. The press of the state should investigate and discuss this better and more human manner of caring for our unfortunates until public opinion is made strong enough to compel its recognition by the next legislature."

THE STATE TAX.
Hysterical efforts of democratic papers to make capital out of the state tax levy will fail. People understand perfectly why the levy is greater this year than in years preceding. The state is now paying for democratic fine work which left the treasury bankrupt when the Peck administration retired. Debts were contracted which republicans have had to pay. The Mondovi Herald explains the situation very correctly as follows:

"During the democratic years the state received large sums of money from extraordinary sources. The treasury suits brought a large sum to the treasury; the return of the war tax was the source also of a great sum of money. This money or a large part of it, was used by the Peck administration to pay current expenses and a state tax was not levied in 1894. But they didn't pay all their bills. There was a large amount left for the Upham administration to liquidate. These facts together with the greatly increased cost of caring for the insane or other dependents explains the increase in state taxes.

Money has seldom been available to business men at as low rates as are now current, and this, together with the favorable outlook and the satisfactory price of grain, makes the general situation most favorable from a business point of view.

UGLY CHARGE MADE AGAINST A MOTHER

ARRESTS IN THE MANITOWOC MURDER CASE.

Mrs. Cornell and James Lewis Are Locked Up Without Waiting For the Result of the Coroner's Inquest—Given an Examination and Committed to Jail To Await Trial.

Oconomowoc, Wis., Nov. 23.—[Special]—There is every indication that the authorities will compel James Lewis and Mrs. Albertina Cornell to stand trial on the charge of murdering the two children of the latter, and also of attempting to take the life of Ernest Cornell, the husband of the woman. Both have already been arraigned without awaiting the outcome of the coroner's inquest, on charges of having guilty knowledge of the crime. Their preliminary hearing was set for December 1 and in the mean time the prisoners will be confined in the Waukesha jail.

NEWS OF MILTON JUNCTION

Wells-McClafferty Wedding is Solemnized—Some Other Events

THE GAZETTE AGENCY.
Mrs. E. D. COON, Manager,
Milton Junction, Nov. 23, 1897.

The expected wedding took place last Wednesday evening at Rock River, when Frank Wells of Milton, and Mrs. Anna McClafferty of this place, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The happy couple went to Chicago on their wedding trip. Thus Milton Junction loses another family from our midst. It is understood that Mrs. Crocley of Farina, will occupy part of Mrs. Anna Wells' house this winter. The New England supper at the S. D. B. church Thursday night, was a success financially. The receipts were over $35. A short program was also given. The masons have finished work on the Kelly block. Carpenters are now putting the finishing touches. A lady from Elkhorn, has moved into town and will open a lady's furnishing store as soon as the store room is ready in the Kelly block.

E. D. Coon expects to be at work in North Johnstown part of this week setting up new school seats which he has sold. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burdick a daughter Flora of Walworth visited at Charlie Clarke's the past week and attended the New England supper. Harry Burdick has a three weeks vacation from his school duties at Walworth. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Coon called on Lafayette Coon at Ft. Atkinson Saturday night, where Mr. Coon is being treated for Lupus cancer by Dr. Wartsbaugh. The doctor takes very favorably of his chance for improvement. Mrs. Esther Cole has moved from Mrs. Spaulding's home into part of Marshall Coon's house. Mrs. Clinton Chamberlain now occupies rooms over E. D. Coon's chambers. The Advent church is being renovated and improved. A new coat of plaster on the ceiling, carpet for the floor, paints for the exterior and new platforms in front are under way and will greatly improve the building. Mr. Loomis is building quite a house on his lot on Janesville street. D. E. Thorpe is having a wood shed built on his home.

There are a number of people in our town who lost nearly their all in the Edgerton bank failure. Addie Grandall had three thousand dollars, the Purdick girls six hundred, none of them being able to work for a living. Ruby Carr has been staying at Rock River and Mildred McClafferty with relatives at Milton during the absence of their mother on her wedding trip. Mr. Wells' little daughter stayed with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wells, during her father's absence. There will be no services at the S. D. B. church here next Sabbath on account of quarrelly meeting at Milton. The I. O. T. Y's held a very enjoyable social at the Odd Fellows hall last Saturday night. There will be Thanksgiving services held at the S. D. B. church Thursday at 10 a. m. Mrs. Marguerite Little has sold her household goods and gone to California to live with a brother.

WEDDING BELLS RANG TODAY
Blilu-Rude.
Orfordville, Nov. 23.—John Blilu of Monroe, and Miss Inga Rude were married at Evansville September 23. The groom is the son of John E. Blilu of Monroe, and the bride is the adopted daughter of Hans Rude, a well-to-do resident of Avon. They will make Monroe their future home.

WISE WOMEN.

Those Who Heed the First Symptoms of Nervous Derangement.

Special from Mrs. Pinkham.
A dull, aching pain at the lower part of the back and a sensation of little rills of heat, or chills running down the spine, are symptoms of general womb derangement.

If these symptoms are not accompanied by leucorrhoea, they are precursors of that weakness. It is worse than folly to neglect these symptoms. Any woman of common sense will take steps to cure herself.

She will realize that her generative system is in need of help, and that a good restorative medicine is a positive necessity. It must be a medicine with specific virtues. As a friend, a woman friend, let me advise the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If your case has progressed so that a troublesome discharge is already established, do not delay, take the Vegetable Compound at once, so as to tone up your whole nervous system; you can get it at any reliable drug store. You ought also to use a local application, or else the corrosive discharge will set up an inflammation and hardening of the parts. Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash is put up in packets at 25 cents each. To relieve this painful condition this Sanative Wash is worth its weight in gold.

Mrs. GEORGE W. SHEPARD, Watervliet, N. Y., says: "I am glad to state that I am cured from the worst form of female weakness. I was troubled very much with leucorrhoea, bearing-down pains and backache. Before using Mrs. Pinkham's Remedies it seemed that I had no strength at all. I was in pain all over. I began to feel better after taking the first dose of Vegetable Compound. I have used five bottles, and I feel like a new woman. I know if other suffering women would only try it, it would help them."

A Free American Day Is Thanksgiving.

Of the holidays of the year the one that holds an important place in the hearts of all Americans is Thanksgiving. It is universally the day for the best dinner of the year. It's the day when indigestion is not thought of (until the day after) and every appetite tested to its fullest capacity. Sanborn can make a great many good suggestions for Thanksgiving dinners. The person who cannot pick a dinner from his stock for President McKinley himself is certainly a crank. Everything good to eat and anything good to eat id this stock. You'll have a Turkey, or a Chicken, or a Duck, of course. That's very sure, but you must have other things besides.

Fresh Celery, fresh Lettuce, fancy Cranberries, very fancy Mexican Oranges, the sweetest Orange that grows, Bananas, very large, especially for Thanksgiving; Concord Grapes; Delaware Grapes; Catawba Grapes; Tokay Grapes; Emperor Grapes; California Pears; Stuffed Dates; fancy Turkish Figs; new Mixed Nuts, 10c lb.; Hickory Nuts, large size, 25c peck; Original Italian Chocolate Creams, equal to the famous Allegetti, 25c half pound box, 40c full pound box; very complete line of Hand Made Creams and Chocolate Creams; fancy Marshmallows for cakes, 5c and 25c boxes. Thanksgiving dinner is not complete without a hot mince pie. We can furnish the meat. Armour's Mince Meat; Monarch Mince Meat; Richelieu Mince Meat; Heinz's Mince Meat, in cans 25c and 35c, the best of all. Our Olive stock is the best in the city, we except none; all sizes and prices, in bottle and bulk, great variety and full quality. Our Pickle stock, bottle or bulk, the most complete in the city—sour, sweet or Dill; not a pickle, size or kind, we do not sell. Durkee Salad Dressing, Heinz's Mustard Dressing, Lea & Perrin's Worcestershire Table Sauce, Heinz's Catsup, Heinz's Chili Sauce, Heinz's India Relish, Richelieu Catsup, genuine Imported Italian Olive Oil, complete line of S. W. Co.'s Richelieu Jams, home made Jelly, S. W. & Co.'s Richelieu Canned Tomatoes, corn, peas, succotash, string, wax and Lima Beans, Richelieu Maple Cream—a rich confection; choicest winter Apples, many varieties. $3.50 a barrel. Gold Medal Flour to help in the dinner—the best Flour milled—still goes at the very low price, $1.25 a sack. To make the dinner complete a pound of S. W. & Co.'s Perfection, Richelieu or Epicure Coffee would be proper; none better anywhere. Sanborn's prices the lowest; he looks to your wants carefully.

THE PRICE OF GRAIN JUMPED UP TODAY

JANESVILLE LED BRODHEAD AND ALBANY.

Farmers Brought Their Oats Here in Preference To Marketing at Those Places—Money For the Cargill Company Is Raised—The Names of the Donors.

Grain prices "have riz." Farmers from Footville brought their oats to Janesville this morning for the reason that they could get a better price here than at Brodhead or Albany.

Twenty cents a bushel was paid here as against eighteen cents offered elsewhere.

Barley was also quoted at higher prices today.

The fact that a new elevator is to be opened here has given the local trade a stimulus.

The money necessary to insure the opening of an elevator by the Cargill company has all been raised. C. S. Jackson and W. H. Greenman finished the canvass this morning and announced that they had been successful.

It is expected that a buyer will be sent here by the Cargill Company the last of the week. The firm will expend about $1,000 in equipping the elevator exclusive of the money raised by subscription. Modern machinery will be used and the firm will have all the appliances necessary to care for the business. A power corn sheller, and new grain elevator will be used.

HELD COURT IN A MAN'S HOME

Judge and Jury Hear Testimony at George Crouse's Residence.

Judge Bennett held court in a private residence today. George Crouse, who is suing the Chicago and Northwestern Company for damages, was worn out today, and was unable to leave his home. He was in court yesterday, and told his story as he sat in an invalid's chair, but it was thought best to keep him at home today. For this reason, the judge, jury, attorneys and court officers went to the Crouse home to hear the balance of the testimony.

The case is likely to keep the court busy the remainder of the week.

START SLEDS NEXT MONTH

The Alaska Company Is Getting Ready for Business.

The Alaska Company, in which several Janesville men are interested, manufacturers of the Coniff patent sleds, will begin the operation of the sled line next month. The sleds have been built, and it is expected that they will pass through Janesville on the railroad, en route for the Klondike soon. The sleds will run from the terminus of the Chicago and Northwestern line at the middle of next month, and the sleds will be there ready for business at that time.

A HOT TIME AT A TOWN OF MILTON SOCIAL.

Janesville Men Who Try To Force Admittance Are Foiled in Their Attempt To Clean Out the Place—One of Them Hit on the Head with an Ax.

When Mrs. Catherine Stockman finished her breakfast early yesterday morning, at her home in the town of Milton, she drove to this city and at once proceeded to the municipal court room, where she swore out a warrant for the arrest of certain local young men whom she claims raised a disturbance at her house Saturday evening last. After securing her warrant of Clerk Whiton, Mrs. Stockman then proceeded to tell friends of the trouble that happened at the Stockman home, six miles from this city, Saturday evening, about 11 o'clock, while a dance was in progress.

In spite of the fact that the party was an invitation affair, two young men drove out from this city, regardless of the fact, it is said, that they were "not expected." On their arrival they knocked on the front door, the call being answered by one of the musicians.

Rumpus Followed.

The boys from Janesville on being informed that the party was a private one, are said to have threatened to carve every man, woman and child in the house or words to that effect. Palaver had no effect, however, and the boys of the dance were refused to visitors. The door was closed in their faces but a few minutes later one of the panels of the front door flew across the room striking a rosy cheeked girl, hailing from Milton, on the head. Then the two boys from Janesville entered the parlor and the fracas commenced in real western style. For a time the only weapons were brawny fists, but a sixteen year old youth soon appeared on the scene with the family ax in hand. While the fight was at the hottest some one wielded the ax most skillfully and the blade came in contact with the head of the Janesville men.

That settled the fight.

Howling with pain the city lads made their way to their buggy and drove to this city with all possible speed. Dr. W. H. Palmer assisted by Dr. E. F. Woods were called to see the sufferer, and took several stitches in the gash in his head.

THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW

Mrs. Henry S. Lugg

In the sleep that knows no waking; into the peace that comes at the end of a well spent life; Mrs. Eleanor Lugg, sank at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon at her home in this city.

Eleanor Carlson was born at Mawgan-in-Meneage, county of Cornwall, England, April 18, 1836. She was married to Henry S. Lugg on January 2, 1869. Five children were born to them, they being Mrs. W. C. Torkin and Mrs. Chaucer Sandell of this city, Mrs. T. K. Wells of Chicago, Edward, pastor of the M. E. church, Astoria, Fulton county, Ill., and John J. pastor of the M. E. church, Footville, Wis.

The family came to America in July, 1855, and settled in this city. Mrs. Lugg was brought up in the Episcopal church, but a year and a half after her marriage she joined the Wesleyan church. Pneumonia was the cause of her demise.

Mrs. Lugg was beloved by all who knew her here, and her death will be generally mourned. The life that came to an end this afternoon was one fraught with kindness and consideration for others; devotion to her children and family, and unfailing trust in Him who hath given, and again, taken away.

Funeral services will be held from the residence, 260 West bluff street, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Funeral of Mrs. J. M. Grove.

The funeral of Mrs. J. M. Grove was held at the Baptist church this afternoon, and the interment was made at Oak Hill. The funeral party arrived on the 12:40 train and proceeded at once to the church. Rev. C. Osborn, of the Elgin Baptist church, officiated. The song service was rendered by a quartet composed of Miss Elizabeth Palmer, Cora Anderson, and Messrs. J. C. Kline and Bates, Miss Elsie Palmer acting as organist. The pall bearers were John T. Fitchett, Willis Wilcox, George Garlock, Claire Beers, E. Butterfield and Charles L. Cleland.

Funeral of N. Crotenberg.

The funeral of Nicholas Crotenberg was held from his home at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Hall of the Court Street M. E. church officiating. The interment was made at Oak Hill.

The pall bearers were B. F. Crosett, George Skelly, William McLay, John Fitzgerald, C. C. Carr, and E. H. Brooks.

Funeral of Mrs. Streeter.

The funeral of Mrs. Minnie Streeter was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. H. Sewell, of Evansville, formerly of this city officiated, and the interment was made at Oak Hill.

More Than Even.

"Did you ever get even with that girl that took your job in the office?"

"You may judge for yourself. I married her, she holds the job, and there is only one of us that ever does a stroke of work."—Detroit Free Press.

CHEERFULNESS

Right Within Ourselves. Its Birthplace.

Any day, wet or cold, hot or dry, is pleasant to the thoroughly healthy man or woman. We have within ourselves, the power to make our days cheerful or disagreeable. We do not depend upon the condition of the sky or atmosphere, for when one is perfectly poised, physically and mentally, the days go by as a dream of comfort, whether they be dark or sunny.

Our goal should be health. Mental is a strong element to bring about physical health, but ill health can be, and is, set up by the use of elements contained in food and drink that do not conform to the wants of nature.

We are inclined to the use of narcotics and stimulants for their temporary deadening or quickening of the nervous system and the heart, but these unnatural things bring about serious conditions; for instance, the pulse of the coffee drinker or tobacco user, shows derangement (either little or great) of the heart. This trouble is ordinarily coupled with stomach and some other difficulties.

The ones who see clearly the advantage in business, home and society, of a perfect condition of mental and physical health, will not require urging to have them abandon articles of food or drink that prevent the accomplishment of the desired end.

The leaving off of coffee for ten days and the use of Postum Food Coffee in its stead will demonstrate the value of the above suggestion and the fact that Postum furnishes brain and body with well selected food elements which go to rebuild the daily disintegration, while at the same time Postum furnishes a delicious beverage if one be particular to know that after boiling commences it is allowed to continue boiling fifteen minutes. This is necessary to obtain the food elements and the proper taste.

Postum is the only Cereal Coffee yet discovered with a coffee taste that is pure and free from low grade coffee or other drugs.

SUING TO COLLECT INSURANCE POLICY

MRS. PRICE WANTS THE MATTER SETTLED.

Company Refuses on the Ground That the Deceased Husband Did Not Truly Represent His Physical Condition at the Time of the Examination by a Physician.

Mrs. Adelia A. Price says she is tired of waiting for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to settle a death policy on the life of her late husband, James H. Price, and has commenced legal action to collect. Attorney J. J. Cunningham appearing in her behalf.

Charging that the deceased swore falsely as to his physical condition at the time he took out this life insurance policy, the insurance company refused to pay the policy.

Mrs. Price, the plaintiff in the case, has of late resided on North Franklin street. Her husband died Sept. 6, 1897. According to the complaint in the case, Mr. Price on May 25, 1896, took out a policy for $50 with the local agency paying them thirty-five cents down and ten cents a week. Prior to the issuing of this policy, it is said, Price was examined by a physician who pronounced him a "good risk," and recommended the issuing of a policy.

Policy Too Small.

As a $50 policy was not a large amount for a married man to carry, relatives advised Price to take out an additional policy with the same company for $230. This he did on Dec. 14, 1896, which made his total insurance $280.

On the day following his death an autopsy was held over the remains by Dr. R. W. Edden assisted by Drs. M. A. Cunningham and W. H. Judd which resulted in the physicians deciding that the deceased came to his death as the result of epilepsy, a disease characterized by fits attended by convulsive motion of the muscles.

The defendant now claims that if Price was subject to fits he should have so stated the facts at the time of his physical examination. The plaintiff in the case claims that as the deceased answered and all questions put to him and that as the physicians pronounced him of sound body and as the insurance collectors made their collections, there is no reason why this policy should not be paid in full with the costs in the case.

THE PURITAN FOLK.

MEN AND WOMEN WHO GAVE US
THANKSGIVING DAY.

Nothing Very Attractive About This Side of the Lives of Our Famous Ancestors. Good Things to Eat and Drink—Large Families.

Those who want to know just what sort of people they were who gave America a Thanksgiving day should read Alice Morse Earle's book, "Customs and Fashions in Old New England."

The reader will surely wonder how it came about that these people were responsible for an anniversary day when they so bitterly opposed letting their poor, little, half frozen, skinny children celebrate April Fool's day.

The young ones of those days were beautifully clad in linen—goose flesh thought—little, thin linen, short sleeved, low necked shirts and baglike dresses of linen, drawn in around the neck with puckering strings.

Then the Sunday after they were born they were carried off to the meeting house to be baptized. There was no fire in those meeting houses, and they often had to break the ice in the christening bowl. But the Puritans had no monopoly of such cruelty to children. The rubric of the Episcopal prayer book says that parents must not defer baptism longer than the first or second Sunday after birth.

One of these New England parsons believed in infant immersion and practiced it, too, till his own child nearly lost its life by it. After that he learned some sense.

Judge Sewall writes Jan. 22, 1694: "A very extraordinary storm by reason of the falling and driving of the snow. Few women could get to meeting. A child named Alexander was baptized in the afternoon."

It is not surprising that consumption struck so deep into New England or that infant mortality was so great. Remember, too, that in the books on the rearing of children it was advised that their feet be often dipped in cold water and that they wear thin soled shoes, "that the wet may come freely to them."

One doesn't wonder, either, at the size of the families. Sir William Phips was one of 26 children by the same mother; Printer Green had 30 children; the Rev. John Sherman of Watertown had 26 children by two wives—20 by his last. With death making so many subtractions, the Puritans had to do a little multiplication.

It must have taken a good deal of scuffling with the elements to provide bread and meat and clothes for a family like a small Sunday school. They didn't get enough to eat, it is plain, for the children were almost all rickety, and all had to take elaborate compounds of baked snails, mashed earthworms, herbs, hartshorn and strong ale to cure them.

But the children were smart children. Phebe Bartlett was powerfully converted when she was 4 years old. Jane Turcell could tell Scripture stories before she was 2 years old, and before she was 4 she could say the greater part of her catechism, many of the Psalms, read distinctly and make pertinent remarks on many things she read. She asked many astonishing questions about divine mysteries.

Cotton Mather took his little daughter Katy, aged 4, into his study and told her that he was to die shortly and that she must remember all he said. He set before her the sinful condition of her nature and charged her to pray in secret places every day, and so on, with much more lugubrious matter of the same sort. He lived 30 years after he scared poor little Katy so.

That's the lively sort of time the Puritan children had.

The poor little Puritan boys were not allowed to go swimming at all, and every titthingman was strictly enjoined to keep them from it. Each titthingman had ten families under his charge, and if one may estimate that there were ten boys in each family the chances are that on a hot August day some one of those 100 young ones defied the law, its dread executor and the chances of going to a place where it is more than August all the year around, and no good swimming holes either.

But the young ones danced, and they had punch to drink. One little girl 8 years old wouldn't stay at her grandmother's house because she couldn't have wine to drink at every meal, and her parents upheld her in her conduct.

They had candy and gingerbread and oranges and pictured story books; but, alas, they were stories of the "Conversion and Holy and Exemplary Lives of Several Young Children," "The Life of Mary Paddock, Who Died at the Age of Nine," "Praise Out of the Mouths of Babies," and the likes of them!

They went to school and froze there when they weren't warmed up with "laming and with whipping and such benefits of nature." Besides, the teacher had devilish devices, such as a split branch, into whose cleft the bad child's nose was put and pinched. They had leather paddles, and the whole community didn't rise up in horror at it, though little children were blistered, not grown up young men.

Bachelors and "lone men" had the worst of it very decidedly. A titthingman kept his eye on them all the time. In Hartford they had to pay 20 shillings a week to the town for living without a wife. Widowers hardly ever died till their wives were good and could before they married again. The father and mother of Governor Winslow had been widower and widow 7 and 12 weeks respectively when they were married. The governor of New Hampshire married a woman whose first husband was put in the grave just ten days before the wedding. A single woman was "an antient maid" at 25 years, and a spinster of 30 years was a "thorn-back."

Judge Sewall wrote in his diary quite a long story of his various attempts to remarry when his first wife died, leaving him a widower 66 years old. He had a dreadful time of it, for he was close fisted in the matter of settlements, but finally he drove a bargain.

In the early days of New England almost everybody of dignity performed the marriage except the parson, and the whole company of guests used to invade the bridal chamber and make long prayers there. Young fellows who were not invited to the wedding had the pleasing custom of stealing the bride after the marriage ceremony, carrying her off and releasing her only when the bridegroom bought a supper for them.

They had good things to eat, though, if two people did have to eat off the same plate. For instance, one New England way to cook eels was to stuff them with nutmeg and cloves, stick them with cloves, cook in wine, place on a chafing dish and garnish with lemons. Indian pudding, hominy, suppawn, pone, samp and succotash they learned how to cook from the Indians. Pumpkins they didn't think much of for the reason that they had such an overdose of them. And here is a recipe for "pumpion pie" which housewives may copy and use—if they can make head or tail of it:

"Take about half a pound of Pumpion and slice it, a handful of Tyne, a little Rosemary, Parsley and Sweet

COTTON MATHER.

Marjoram, slipped off the stalks, and chop them small and beat them, then mix them and beat them altogether and put in as much Sugar as you think fit, then fry them like a froiz. After it is fried, let it stand till it be cold, then fill your Pie. Takesliced Apples, thime rounde-ways, and lay a row of the Froiz and layer of Apples, with Currans betwixt the layer while your Pie is fitted and put in a good deal of sweet butter before you close it, when the Pie is baked take sixteen yelks of Eggs, some White Wine or Vergis, and make a Caudle of this but not too Thicke, cut up the Lid and put it in, stir them well together whilst the Eggs and Pumpions be not perceived and so serve it up."

Probably it was good, but there was mighty little "pumpion" to the "pie" and a good deal of everything else in the shop. Sixteen eggs in a pie when they are selling at eight for a quarter will scare out a good many thrifty housewives of today.

They were pretty heavy drinkers at first, but very early it began to be hard lines for habitual drunkards. They had to sit in the stocks, lost their votes and had a great "D" made of "redd" cloth hung around their necks or sewed on their clothes.

The recipes for fancy drinks were intolerably long and full of all the spices in their shops and all the herbs of their gardens. Their simpler ones were rather messy things, one would think. Here is Landlord May's recipe for flip:

"Mix four pounds of sugar, four eggs and a pint of cream, and let it stand for two days. Fill a quart mug two-thirds full of beer, put therein four great spoonfuls of the compound. Then thrust into the mixture a hot loggerhead and add a gill of rum."

A popular drink in Salem was "whisdebbely vengeance"—charming name! It was made of sour household beer simmered in a kettle, sweetened with molasses, filled with brown bread crumbs and drank hot.

For medicines the old Puritans had the awfullest pessies. Sow bugs and roses, and pounded coral, and toads caught in March and burned to a char, and ambergris were some of the drugs. Of course they were bled and physicked to the last degree. They used to make up parties or classes and go to a retreat, where they would all be inoculated for smallpox—not vaccinated, but inoculated with the real disease. There they "broke out" together, had the fever together, sweat together, sealed off together, and many a love affair sprang up amid such highly unromantic circumstances.

The greatest of all trials, one would think, was the way the neighbors all got into the sickroom and prayed all day long. It was no good the poor badgered creature telling them to hold their tongues and to let him alone. They kept at him till he told them to pray, and they fairly hectoring him into heaven.

But they had glorious times at funerals. They must have all got tight as drums from the amount of liquor they drank. Funeral odes were about the only punning poetry the Puritans wrote. They had no prayers or sermons—just put the man into the ground with great pomp. Everybody had to have gloves, and rings were often given away by the family of the deceased. They had such lovely things on them as—

Prepared by Dr. Buxton of Salem left when he died a quart mug full of rings he had "made," as the thrifty phrase was, by going to funerals.

Strangest of all, in New England, the land of rocks, where they plant fields with shotguns and the sheep's noses have to be ground so that they can nibble the grass between the pebbles, they used to import the gravestones from old England.

And these were the folks who invented Thanksgiving day

A Favorite Remark

Of young men of limited means: If I could afford it, I'd always go to a tailor. Now a suit of clothes I make will last twice as long, and fit twice as good, as a ready made, and more than pays for itself in the satisfaction it brings. As for price: Put ours and the ready-made side by side, and it will be hard to tell them apart.
